Privacy Notice for Visitors to the Company Premises

1 Who is responsible for data processing and whom can I contact?

The responsible entity is:

asCom Confection GmbH
Industriestraße 54
69190 Walldorf
Tel.: +49 (0) 6227 813 30 - 0
E-Mail: export@ascomgum.com

You can reach our Data Protection Officer at:

Dr. Andreas Melzer

Tel: 0345 132553-80
E-Mail: dsb@kelobit.de

2 What sources and data do we use?

We process the data you provide in our visitor registration form.

The personal data we process includes:

- Name, first name
- Company affiliation and, if applicable, company address
- Vehicle registration number, if applicable
- Date, duration, and reason for your visit
- Your contact person within our company

3 For what purposes do we process your data and on what legal basis?

We use the data listed above to track who is currently on our company premises or who was there at a specific time in the past. This is necessary, for example:

- if we need to evacuate the premises due to an incident
- if we need to inform you later about the consequences of an incident
- if we identify damages that need to be traced back

The legal basis for these processes is generally Article 6(1)(f) of the GDPR. Our legitimate interest lies in achieving the aforementioned purposes.

It may occur that we wish to collect additional data from you or use it differently at a later point. If this happens, we will ask for your consent according to Article 6(1)(a) in conjunction with Article 7 of the GDPR and inform you accordingly. If you grant us this consent, it can be withdrawn at any time without formalities.

Should your data be necessary for legal proceedings, processing may take place to protect our legitimate interests under Article 6(1)(f) of the GDPR. Our interest would then be in asserting or defending claims, such as providing evidence in a legal procedure.

4 Who receives my data?

In our company, only those individuals who need your data to perform their job duties generally have access to it.

In certain circumstances, we may be required to disclose specific data to authorised entities as part of our legal obligations.

5 Are data transferred to a third country or an international organisation?

As a rule, data are not transferred to entities in countries outside the European Economic Area (so-called third countries).

6 How long are my data stored?

We store your data for a period of four weeks. After this period, the data are securely destroyed.

7 What data protection rights do I have?

Every data subject has the right to access under Article 15 GDPR, the right to rectification under Article 16 GDPR, the right to erasure under Article 17 GDPR, the right to restrict processing under Article 18 GDPR, the right to object under Article 21 GDPR, and the right to data portability under Article 20 GDPR. The restrictions under Sections 34 and 35 of the BDSG apply to the right of access and the right to erasure. Additionally, there is a right to lodge a complaint with a competent data protection supervisory authority (Article 77 GDPR).

You can withdraw your consent to the processing of personal data at any time. This also applies to the withdrawal of consent given to us before the GDPR came into effect, i.e., before 25 May 2018. Please note that withdrawal is effective only for the future. Processing that occurred before the withdrawal is not affected.

8 Is there an obligation to provide data?

Providing your personal data is neither legally nor contractually required, nor are you obliged to provide these data.

However, we may not be able to grant you access to our company premises if you do not provide the data.

9 To what extent does automated decision-making take place?

Automated decision-making according to Article 22 GDPR does not take place.

10 Is profiling carried out?

We do not process your data with the aim of evaluating certain personal aspects automatically.

11 Information about your right to object under Article 21 GDPR

11.1 Right to object on a case-by-case basis

You have the right to object at any time, for reasons arising from your particular situation, to the processing of personal data concerning you which is based on Article 6(1)(f) GDPR (data processing based on a balance of interests). This also applies to profiling based on this provision as defined in Article 4 No. 4 GDPR.

If you object, we will no longer process your personal data unless we can demonstrate compelling legitimate grounds for processing that override your interests, rights and freedoms, or if processing serves the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.

11.2 Recipient of an objection

The objection can be made informally with the subject "Objection" stating your name and organisation and should be addressed to the contact information provided in point 1.

12 Changes to this privacy notice

We revise this privacy notice in case of changes in data processing or other occasions that make it necessary. The current version can always be found on this website.
